Thanks very much for your note of February 28 enclosing the clipping with regard to the individual that you recently sent in to have a talk with us. I had an interesting chat with him and then took him to the appropriate staff officer who made certain arrangements. Aside from the fact that he could be very helpful to us officially, I was glad to have the opportunity to meet such an interesting and likable fellow. In my job here where I am frequently forced to throw a block into some undesirable character attempting to see the Director, it is always a pleasure to meet a really good type.

If this letter is a little vague, you will understand the reason.

Thanks again for your continuing interest in our work.

Sincerely,
